

Change the sentences from the Positive to the Negative form, and from the Negative to the Positive form.

1. Strong agriculture boosts the economy of any country.

2. The rain never stops to fall around here.

3. The Christians believe that after they die they go to heaven.

4. Women think they are superior to men; in fact, they can be.

5. Segregation does terrible things to people.

6. We don't want you people here. Get lost!

7. Isabelle does not believe in ghosts.

8. I do not work every day of the week, it is too much.

9. The Brazilian football team practices just a little before a game.

10. Lord Bolton tells his clerks what to do.

11. My friend and I don't try much at work, we are lazy.

12. My relatives don't show up very often.

13. Many people in Brazil have just a little food to eat.

14. The Destroyers reach the light speed in no time.

15. The government plan turns people into hard workers for the country.

Answers

1. Strong agriculture does not boosts the economy of any country.
2. The rain stops to fall around here.
3. The Christians do not believe that after they die they go to heaven.
4. Women do not think they are superior to men; in fact, they can be.
5. Segregation does not do terrible things to people.
6. We want you people here. Don't get lost!
7. Isabelle believes in ghosts.
8. I work every day of the week, It is too much.
9. The Brazilian football team does not practice just a little before a game.
10. Lord Bolton doesn't tell his clerks what to do.
11. My friend and I try much at work, we aren't lazy.
12. My relatives show up very often.
13. Many people in Brazil don't have just a little food to eat.
14. The Destroyers don't reach the light speed in no time.
15. The government plan does not turn people into hard workers for the country.